

Alfred Hitchcock

When Boys Leave Home - 1927

Public schoolboy Roddy Berwick is expelled from school when he takes the blame for a friend's theft and his life falls apart in a series of misadventures (AKA Downhill).

The 39 Steps 1935

A man in London tries to help a counterespionage agent. But when the agent is killed and he stands accused, he must go on the run to both save himself and also stop a spy ring trying to steal top secret information.

The Farmer's Wife 1928

Long believed lost, this stands as a fine example of the master's lighter touch. This comedy centers around a farmer whose wife dies in the first reel, he then spends the rest of the film searching for a new one. His methods and the women's reactions are reminders of the gentle comedy that was possible only on the silent screen.

The Man Who Knew Too Much 1934

Edna Best, Nova Pilbeam, Peter Lorre and Leslie Banks star in the spy thriller. Though it may well be dated, it is still more fun to watch than Hitchcock's own 1956 remake.

Manxman 1928

Carl Brisson stars as a fisherman who is lost at sea. When he returns he finds that his girl friend is expecting his best friend's baby

Number 17 1927

A fine crime drama that was to set the pace for many of Hitch's climax scenes to come. A Jewel thief helps the police track down her former gang.

The Pleasure Garden 1925

Hitchcock's first directorial credit; filmed before, but released after "The Lodger". Patsy Brand is a chorus girl at the Pleasure Garden music hall. She gets Jill Cheyne a job as a dancer. Jill meets, marries & cheats on Hugh Fielding.

Easy Virtue 1927

Ian Hunter and Isabel Jeans star in this social melodrama about a married woman who falls in love with a young man who later kills himself.

Waltzes From Vienna 1933

The master's least favorite film. On one DVD we offer both the original UK and shortened French versions.

The Lodger 1926

First of three film versions under this title of the Jack The Ripper story. This was the first Hitchcock film to exhibit all of the master's dynamic visual touches.

The Skin Game 1932

John Galsworthy's popular play about a land owner who hates his self made neighbor shines with the talents of Edmund Gwenn, Helen Haye and Frank Lawton.

Secret Agent 1936

It took the direction of the master and a power house cast to put this over. Robert Young, Peter Lorre, John Gielgud, Lilli Palmer and Madeleine Carroll star in this spy drama.

Champagne 1927

Early Hitchcock comedy concerning a millionaire who pretends to go bankrupt to teach his daughter a lesson. Betty Balfour and Jean Bradin star

Jamaica Inn 1939

Hitchcock's last British film before heading to the US and turning out Rebecca! If you're looking for a great Hitchcock movie - don't look here - but if you want a good film with an ample side of ham provided by Laughton - well this is the place. And Maureen O'Hara is not hard to look at either.

Rich and Strange 1932

Least common of the early sound films by Hitchcock. Again the first 7 min or so is a visual montage orchestrated to sounds and music (no dialogue) that show a man's frustration with his dull life. This remains a bizarre and engrossing entry.

Murder 1930

Herbert Marshall, in his first speaking role, is Sir John in the fine who done it. Here Marshall is a juror who sets out to prove that a convicted girl is innocent of murder.

The Lady Vanishes 1936

While traveling in continental Europe, a rich young playgirl realizes that an elderly lady seems to have disappeared from the train.

Sabotage 1936

Fine performances by Sylvia Sydney, John Loder and (as the foreign agent passing himself off as a London movie house owner) Oscar Homolka highlight this suspense thriller.

The Ring 1927

Carl Brisson, Charles Farrell and Ian Hunter star in this fine silent drama. Brisson is a circus attraction called "One Round" Sanders who's in love with Lilian Hall-Davis (the girl in the box office). He meets his match in the ring and with Davis, when pro-boxer Hunter comes on the scene.

Blackmail 1929

Though this was to be the Master's first talking film, the first 10 min. are a montage narrated by sound without dialogue.

Young and Innocent 1937

Nova Pilbeam is a girl on the run, when her boyfriend is suspected of murder. All of the master's touches a present to highlight this chase drama.

QUEEN KELLY (1929)

After years of struggles within the studio system, von Stroheim found the opportunity to direct once again (and, for the last time). Sadly, only a little more than 1/2 of the film exists - but this time, it's because that's all that was filmed.

Silent Cinema

Within the Law (1923)

Set and photographed in New York City, WITHIN THE LAW follows a shop girl (Norma Talmadge) who is unjustly accused of stealing, and then sent to jail. She plots revenge against her former employer.

Kiki (1926)

This showcases Norma Talmadge in a rare comedic performance. A high-spirited Parisian gamine is determined to become a chorus girl and win the heart of the Follies manager (Ronald Colman).

Her Night of Romance (Sidney Franklin - 1924)

An heiress (Constance Talmadge) traveling in England disguises herself to discourage fortune-hunters. She falls in love with a handsome nobleman (Ronald Colman) who is secretly impoverished.

Her Sister from Paris (Sidney Franklin - 1925)

A film that allows Constance Talmadge to demonstrate her comic range in dual roles: a frumpy-but-faithful housewife and her sophisticated twin sister.

Beyond the Rocks – 1922

The only time Valentino and Gloria Swanson appeared together on film.

Alfred Santell’s Orchids And Ermine - 1927

comedy with Colleen Moore as a switchboard operator at a fancy hotel who meets an oil millionaire from Oklahoma but she thinks he's the valet

Delicious Little Devil – 1919

Early Valentino film (in fact he was still calling himself Valintine) . The real star of the film was Mae Murray

Daddy Long Legs – 1919

Mary Pickford stars - Wealthy Jervis Pendleton acts as benefactor for orphan Judy Abbott, anonymously sponsoring her in her boarding school. But as she grows up, he finds himself falling in love with her, and she with him, though she does not know that the man she has fallen for is her benefactor. Remade in 1955

Martyrs of the Alamo - 1915

written and directed by Christy Cabanne, The story of the defense of the mission-turned-fortress by 185 Texans against an overwhelming Mexican army in 1836. This was Douglas Fairbanks 2nd film (his first (The Lamb) was released just two weeks before.

Manslaughter - 1922

C.B.DeMille’s film Society-girl thrillseeker Lydia causes the death of motorcycle policeman and is prosecuted by her fiance Daniel who describes in lurid detail the downfall of Rome.

Special Programs

The Silent Years Vol 1 1916-22 Featured is a 50 min. (narrated) condensation of Valentino's Blood & Sand. Following this is the complete Mystery of The Leaping Fish; starring Douglas Fairbanks Sr. in a story by Tod Browning (an early parody of Sherlock Holmes). The tape is rounded off by two Paramount shorts of the 1930's: Movie Milestones (#1 & #2). They feature the only footage known to exist of Emil Jannings in Way Of All Flesh, and Lon Chaney Sr. in The Miracle Man.

The Silent Years Vol 2 1908-13 Here is a two hour study of the art of D. W. Griffith. 12 of his one and two reel features are presented here, 10 of them restored from the paper prints stored in the Library of Congress. Featured are: Lines of White Upon a Sullen Sea, Balked At The Alter, Faithful, Lonely Villa, Fools of Fate, An Awful Moment, The Girls and Daddy, plus others. This title is offered at $19.95

Hollywood Party Tape 90 Min of rare takes and footage including Bugs Bunny for bonds, Bette Davis for dish washers, Lugosi with Betty Boop, Ron Reagan Bloopers, Constance Bennet's Beauty Secrets, Star is Born world premiere (1954), 1939 acadamy awards and a very rude Porky Pig are included.

Early Disney Animation Two Alice cartoons, two of Disney's Oswald the Rabbit cartoons, two Neuman's Laugh-o-grams, Susie The Blue Coupe, The Mad Doctor and more, highlight this collection.

Classics of 30's Animation Vol 1-4 Four 90 min. compilations, B&W and color, featuring the works of Ub Iwerks, Harmon Isling, and others.

The Christmas Collections

The Joys of Christmas Volume 1 of "The Joys of Christmas" featured are the 1955 NBC Christmas eve special "An evening with Charles Laughton" - for a full hour Mr Laughton reads from the works of James Thurber, the Book of Daniel, the gospel according to Luke and Charles Dickens' "The Pickwick Papers". Taken from an original NBC Kinescope.

Also on this volume is the 1954 Christmas episode of Waterfront; "Christmas in San Pedro" with Preston Foster, Willie Best and Arthur Shields. There are several Christmas short subjects including 1957's Howdy Doody's Christmas.

The Joys of Christmas Volume 2 of "The Joys of Christmas" featured are over 90 minutes of Christmas shorts including "No Room at the Inn", "Christmas Lace", "The Brightest Night" and more. The collection ends with The Patti Page show. This is the Christmas episode (Patti sings 4 or 5 songs) - but it should be noted, this was her 15 minute syndicated show, not the one sponsored by Oldsmobile!

The Joys of Christmas Volume 3 of "The Joys of Christmas" featured are 4 half hour specials including one from 1950 called "The Guiding Star", The moving "No Escape from Christmas", The animated "The City that Forgot About Christmas" and Jim Backus telling the story behind the most famous Christmas letter of all "Yes Virginia, there is a Santa Claus".

The Joys of Christmas Volume 4 of "The Joys of Christmas" featured are Two versions of Dicken's "A Christmas Carol" - the first is narrated by Fredric March and stars Basil Rathbone as Scrooge - the second Stars Mach as Scrooge, with Rathbone as Jacob Marley. This one is a musical with lyrics by Maxwell Anderson and music composed and conducted by Bernard Herrmann. It was originally shown on Christmas Eve, 1954 as part of the CBS/Desilu "Shower of stars". Rounding out the two hours on this volume are 4 Holiday shorts

The Joys of Christmas Volume 5 of "The Joys of Christmas" featured is a newsreel from 1945, a Visit to Santa - 1963, A Visitor for Christmas, Joe Santa Claus - 1951, a small collection of theatrical trailers for Christmas movies, the stable boy's christmas and more.

Our new double feature line - get two movies for the price of one (on one DVD)

Item 001 Passing of the Third Floor Back 1918/1935 both the 1918 and 1935 versions are present. This is a classic, near fantasy based on the Victorian play by Jerome K. Jerome.

Item 009 The Windy City 1952/1957
Two films of what has been dubbed the noir style (though not by me), set in the Chicago if the 1950's. Chicago Calling from 1952, and from 1957 its Chicago Confidential.

Item 002 Jew Suss 1934/1940
both the 1934 and the 1940 versions are present. Dramatically different approaches to the same story, the first, a brilliant and moving story of life in the 18th century Jewish ghetto of Wurtemberg. And a man who tries to better himself with the help of an evil Duke. The second is the Nazi propaganda historical costume melodrama, where the protagonist of the 1934 film is turned into the Villain.

Item 003 The Golem 1920/1936 both the 1920 German version and the 1936 French import are offered - and as a bonus - we're including a 4 minute fragment from the (almost) lost 1915 version.

Item 004 The Tudors - 1933/1936
Two films about old Henry that show just how good those quota quickies could be. First, from 1933 we offer Charles Laughton in the title role showing us the Private Life of Henry VIII - then a 1936 look at Lady Jane Grey's short life, from her forced marriage, to her brief reign as monarch of England and finally to her beheading in Tudor Rose (aka Nine Days a Queen).

Item 005 Robinson vs Louis 1950/1955
Great film biographies of two of America's greatest sports legends; Jackie Robinson and Joe Louis. In the former, Jackie Robinson plays himself, in the latter Coley Wallace is cast as Joe Louis, because the felt Louis just wasn't the right type!

Item 006 Take your best shot 1933/1935
Quota quickie or Poverty row; here are two films, completely different plots - both called A Shot In The Dark.

Item 007 Its the Arizona kid 1930/1939
here again are two films with the same name (Arizona kid), made roughly 10 years apart, but with little in common other than the title and the Western setting.

Item 008 Back to the slammer 1943/1955
Here are two great little Prison Pictures; from 1855 its "The Big House USA" and from 1943 we offer "Behind Prison Walls".

Item 010 Mysteries of the Orient 1931/1935
In the set we offer Chinatown After Dark (from 1931) and the fast passed Chinatown Squad (from 1935).

Item 011 he Emerald Isle 1958/1959
From 1958, The Loot goes missing in a robbery/double-cross in "Dublin Nightmare" - and then the story of the 1916 Easter
Rising,using original footage of the time; Mise Eire (1959)

Item 012 Spotlight on Julien Duvivier 1930/1939
First up is Au Bonheur Des Dames from 1930, then we offer
Duvivier's La Charrette Fantome from 1939

Item 013 Spotlight on Rene Clair
First a film that became the basis for TV's Early Edition; It Happened Tomorrow, a gem from 1944. Then from the pen of Agatha Christie; And Then There Were None (1945), remade (badly) as Ten Little Indians.

Item 014 Those teenage delinquents!
Teenage delinquents terrorize a small community in The Choppers, from 1961. Next the son of a hot-rod hating judge soups up a jalopy and makes daddy proud - eventually - in "Hot Rod" from 1950.

Item 015 A Bite of the Big Apple
Manhattan Love Song, 1934
Manhattan Tower, 1932

Item 016 All Roads lead to The biggest little city
Road to Reno, 1931
Night Life In Reno, 1931

Item 017 Son of Those teenage delinquents!
Teen Age Crime Wave (AKA Jail Bait), 1955
Teen aged Devil Dolls (AKA One Way Ticket to Hell), 1955

Item 018 A Swinging Sensation
Swing Parade of 1946 (made in 1945)
Sensations of 1945 (made in 1944)

Item 019 Thanking all the Little People
Terror Of Tiny Town, 1938
It's a Small World, 1950

Item 020 This TV thing will never catch on Trapped by Television, 1936
Murder by Television, 1935

Item 021 Lucky 13 1932/1943
First up, the original "The Thirteenth Guest" from 1932, then 11 years later, the remake; "Mystery of the 13th Guest"

Item 022 Rathbone and Bruce Volume 1
Sherlock Holmes Dressed To Kill, 1946
Sherlock Holmes Secret Weapon, 1943

Item 023 Rathbone and Bruce Volume 2
Sherlock Holmes Terror By Night, 1946
Sherlock Holmes Woman In Green, 1945

Item 025 Son of Lucky 13 1932/1933
